

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH MRED

A unique and effective degree, the Master of Real Estate Development (MRED) program at the David Eccles School of Business delivers the knowledge and hands-on experience you need to build and sustain a successful real estate career. As a joint venture between the Eccles School and the College of Architecture + Planning, the MRED program is designed for students and professionals with varied backgrounds and experience.

CURRICULUM

Format: Full-Time or Part-Time

Semester Start: Fall or Spring

Length: 4 semesters or 5-7 semesters

Concurrent Degrees:

- MRED | Master of Science in Finance
- MRED | Professional MBA

Dual Degrees:

- MRED | Master of City and Metropolitan Planning
- MRED | Master of Architecture
- MRED | Juris Doctor

CAREER OUTCOMES*

Job Placement Rate: 97%

Average Starting Salary: $114,195

**Average starting salary with variable compensation. Placement and salary statistics refer to the graduating class of 2022-23; and reflect graduates who enter a new career position, continue previous employment, start a business, etc.*

CLASS PROFILE

- Employed at Start of Program: 77%
- Employed as Commercial Real Estate Professional: 50%
- Non-Business Majors: 57%
- Average Work Experience: 4 years
- Class Size: 30
- Average GPA: 3.50
- Age Breakdown:
  - 20-24: 20%
  - 25-30: 50%
  - 31+: 30%

TUITION

Find current tuition rates here:

Ecclesl.link/MREDTuition

ADMISSIONS DEADLINES

Domestic

Spring

Priority: September 1

Final: December 1

Fall

Priority: May 1

Final: July 1

International

Spring

Priority: August 31

Final: October 2

Fall

Priority: February 1

Final: April 1

Applications are open
— apply now!